

Capital City Canine Agility Club
Agility Class
Guidelines for Admittance

All Fees must be paid at the time of registration.

A copy of your dog's current rabies certificate must be submitted along with all the required forms and a check or money order. (Made payable to Capital City Canine Agility Club).

Confirmation with further information and directions will be mailed upon receipt of paid pre-registration.

There will be no refunds for dogs expelled after week one.

All dogs must be under the handler's control and supervision at all times, even while relaxed.

Dogs should be in good health-this includes being the correct weight.

Dogs are required to be at least 1 year of age for the Intro to Obstacles level or higher classes (no exceptions!). Any classes that allow dogs less than 1 year of age will have that stated on the website. If you are taking a class that allows dogs less than 1 year of age, the guidelines AND release (see below) must be signed by the owner.

Handlers must take responsibility for cleaning up after their own dog. No dog is allowed to eliminate in or around the equipment.

All bitches in heat must wear britches to participate in class or open floor time.

Please date, sign and send the bottom portion of this form with your class registration form to:
